

Actions at the Local Level

Integrating Energy, Climate and Economic Development

U.S. Center
December 6, 2012
6:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Through the collaboration of local and state leaders and nonprofit organizations, this panel will foster innovative discussion around the process of targeted, state and local climate action. Subnational leaders will explore the impact of local action on a global scale through a combination of reducing energy and emissions while spurring economic development. Join us for this opportunity to dialogue with leaders driving action at the local level:

Reta Jo Lewis	Special Representative Global Intergovernmental Affairs U.S. Department of State
Tom Peterson	Founder, President and CEO Center for Climate Strategies
Maggie Comstock	Policy Analyst Advocacy and Public Policy U.S. Green Building Council
